CIP Program description:

The department of Computer Applications offers a degree and certificates in Computer Applications. The degree program requires a minimum of 60 units, of which at least 36 units must be in the CA program and at least 24 units must be General Education units. An Associate of Science Degree and two levels of certificates are available: Certificate of Achievement Level 2 and Certificate of Achievement Level 3. The certificate programs can be completed without the General Education requirements and includes the following courses:

Microsoft Word

Microsoft Excel

Microsoft Access

Microsoft PowerPoint

Microsoft Outlook

Microsoft Office Specialist Certification, the premier in Microsoft desktop certification, is a globally recognized standard for demonstrating desktop skills which helps to meet the demand for qualified and knowledgeable people in the modern workplace. Our courses and certificates will prepare students to take the Microsoft Office Specialist and Expert Level (MOS) Exams. Certified individuals report increased competence and productivity as well as increased credibility with their employers, co-workers, and clients. Employers around the world know that it is a smart decision to hire certified candidates and, certification can be an employee's ticket to better career opportunities.

After successful completion of the series of tests for MOS, students will receive certification authenticating their skills from the certifying agency. There is a registration fee that must be paid before students can take the desired tests.

Upon receiving an Associate of Science Degree, graduates should be able to demonstrate use of following skills: touch keyboarding, document composition/word processing, mail merge, using e-mail, scheduling appointments, using the internet to locate information, file and folder management, oral and written communication skills, preparing presentations, resume writing, creating a portfolio of business documents, and organization skills.

The Computer Applications Program provides in-depth training in careers such as:
Administrative Assistant
Office Manager
Word Processing Specialist
Office and Administrative Support
Database Designer
Document Specialist
Clerical/Office/Receptionist
