

LABOR STUDIES

San José City College offers an Associate in Arts (AA) degree, Associate of Science (AS) degree and a Certificate of Achievement in Labor Studies. Students planning to follow a transfer pattern should use the Associate in Arts Degree. This degree may not transfer to all universities, and students need to inquire of the universities if they have a bachelor's degree for their upper division course work. For a degree, at least four courses in the major must be completed at San José City College, and a minimum of two Labor Studies courses must be taken at SJCC. For a certificate of Achievement, a minimum of nine units must be taken at San José City College. A grade of "C" or better is required for all major courses.

This program is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge required to assume leadership in organized labor and in community organizations.

Upon completion this program students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a broad understanding of political economy, globalization and immigration policy, labor laws, and structures of labor organizations.
- Describe the structure of labor and community non-governmental organizations and the various roles and strategies that are available toward advancing their goals.
- Assess and use information technology to research issues, communicate with others, and organize activities supporting the organizational goals of labor and community organizations.
