

Behavior Policy

- Excessive noise of any kind is not permitted. Any conversation or other activity that causes noise that is disturbing to others must be discontinued. Study rooms are available on the third floor for group study or extended discussion.
- No cell phone calls are allowed. Cell phones are to be turned off, (or their ringers deactivated), before entering the library. Students talking on their cell phones will be asked to exit the building.
- Consumption of food and drink is not allowed. Only water in resealable containers is allowed. Students entering the building with food or drink will be asked to dispose of them in the trash, or take them outside.
- Misuse of library furniture and materials is not tolerated. Defacement of books, computers, furniture or any other part of the facility, is construed as vandalism, and is in violation of California Penal Code Section 594.
- Removal of library materials without checkout constitutes theft; Campus Police will be alerted.
- Harassment, intimidation, or threatening of staff, or any other person, is not tolerated; this includes physical, sexual, racial, or verbal abuse. Violators will be referred to Campus Police.
- Willful defiance or disrespectful behavior toward staff is not tolerated.
- Disorderly, lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct or expressions, (including profanity), is not allowed.
- No gambling or solicitation of money is allowed.
- Anyone who fails to comply with these behavior standards will be asked to leave the library.
