

Disabled Access to the Library

The library follows the guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the SJCC Disabled Students Program and Services (DSPS) in providing access and accommodation to library resources.

Accommodation includes:

- a reserved, ADA-approved computer workstation with ZoomText and JAWS;
- lowered desks at both the Reference Desk and the Circulation Counter;
- an adjustable table for students using wheelchairs;
- A print-enlarger for students with limited vision to enable their usage of materials available only in standard print;
- All student computers have the JAWS screen reader program and headphones;
- Service animals are allowed in the library even if they are not wearing a service “vest”;
- Braille signs are posted inside and outside of the elevator.
