 - B. SJCC New Course Proposals (requires Board approval)
 1. ART 076B: Professional Practices and Portfolio Development 2 – 3.0 Units
Students refine their artistic vision and goals to produce a professional quality portfolio. Students work individually and in teams to curate and install exhibitions. Students will produce written and/or oral presentations, further develop their artist statements and resumes, present their work through exhibitions and portfolios, and create capstone projects in their area of concentration.

2. ECE 020: Observation and Assessment Methods in ECE – 3.0 Units

Students will learn the appropriate use of formal and informal observation tools, case study portfolios, recording, and rating systems. The use of multiple assessment and observation strategies, in various early childhood settings, will be covered. Emphasis will be on use of assessment strategies that inform and provide for developmentally appropriate curriculum. To ensure accurate observations and assessments, the importance of collaboration between teacher, families, and other professionals will be examined.

3. ETH 041: Vietnamese American Culture – 3.0 Units

Students will examine the experiences of Vietnamese Americans who have resettled in the United States since the Vietnam War ended in the mid '70s. This course will offer a unique opportunity for students to analyze the transition and adaptation of the Vietnamese American community in the context of history, culture, family, religion, education, career, community leadership and internal politics.
