- 1. Associate in Science in Early Childhood Education for Transfer Degree – 60.0 Units
The Associate in Science in Early Childhood Education for Transfer (AS-T) meets the lower division course requirements necessary for the California State University (CSU) system. Graduates of the AS-T in Early Childhood Education qualify through academic preparation and field experience for work in childcare centers, daycare facilities, infant, toddler and preschool centers, and other programs serving young children. They are able to use instructional techniques, which promote cognitive, social, emotional, physical, and creative growth in children. After completing the AS-T in Early Childhood Education degree, students will be eligible for the Teacher Level of the State of California Child Development Permit, and qualify for employment as teachers or site supervisors in government and privately funded early care and education programs. In addition to working in childcare related facilities, the AS-T in Early Childhood Education also provides a foundation for students pursuing baccalaureate study in early care and education; child psychology; children, youth, and family services; child advocacy; social work and other social sciences.
