D. SJCC New Program Proposals

1. Emergency Medical Services Technology-Certificate of Specialization — 11.5 Units
   Description: The Emergency Medical Services Technology Certificate of Specialization is designed to prepare the student to become a competent entry-level Emergency Medical Technician (EMT). Students will receive the technical knowledge and necessary skills to enter a career in emergency medical services. The EMT curriculum places emphasis on the critical thinking components needed to pass the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (NREMT) test. The EMT courses along with the Health Science courses are instrumental in entering a career as an Emergency Medical Technician, Emergency Room Technician, Firefighter, and many other medical careers.

2. Information Systems Security-Cyber Security: Associate in Science — 21 Units
   Description: The Department of Computer Information Systems (CIS) offers degrees and certificates in three major areas: Computer Programming, Network Administration and Web Developer. See the respective major sheets for additional information about the specific certificates and degrees. A grade of “C” or better is required in all certificate, major and major elective courses. The CIS Information System Security Cyber Security Certificate and Degree Programs are designed to provide students with skills in cybersecurity to enable graduates to gain employment as an entry-level Cybersecurity professional. Courses will emphasize skills on how to secure, protect and manage information systems. An Associate in Science Degree and two levels of certificates are offered.

4. Theatre Arts Associate in Arts for Transfer—60 Units
   Description: The Associate in Arts in Theatre Arts for Transfer (AA-T) meets the lower division course requirements necessary for the California State University (CSU) system. Theatre students gain self-confidence and work in a collaborative environment through class projects and performances. Theatre encourages students to take risks, to focus on their intentions and the tremendous power of personal commitment to a project or play. The core values of our Theatre Arts program are personal integrity, social justice, and examining how art imitates life.
