In this class, students will be introduced to the interrelationships among the physical, intellectual, social and psychological aspects of developmental disabilities (DD). Students will also explore values and beliefs relating to persons with DD to help us understand our own feelings and the feelings of others. Various developmental disabilities will be reviewed in an attempt to more fully understand the challenges and needs individuals.

E-MAIL ME AT: TOSHIO.ASAI@SJCC.EDU